

QUESTIONS AND ISSUES SHEET - TV-10 INPUT PROGRAM - "The Right to Be Human"

1. What are human rights?
2. Are there fundamental human rights in addition to those articulated in the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights? What rights included there go beyond popular concepts of human rights? What would you add? Delete?
3. In what ways could less widely discussed human rights be implemented? For example right to participate in cultural life of the community and enjoy the arts, right to human dignity, right to develop creativity and develop full human potential?
4. By what criteria can it be determined what conditions are necessary to the development of full human potential?
5. Are there any conflicting rights or interests which should be given priority over human rights? Which?
6. Who is to decide what constitutes fundamental, inalienable human rights?
7. Who is to decide which human rights should be deferred or abrogated, if any, in the short term in favor of building long term political and economic supports for life?
8. Can fundamental human rights such as freedom of thought, belief and opinion, and speech, be achieved or maintained in the absence of such other human rights as freedom from fear and freedom from want? Does denial of some basic rights deter or prevent the achievement of others?
9. From what sources can the impetus for effective implementation of human rights goals be expected? How can responsible authorities be stimulated toward these goals?
10. Does increasing technological capability for meeting human needs stimulate rising expectations for extending human rights? For broader definitions of human rights? For changing values?
11. What is the responsibility of the religious groups in the achievement of human rights goals? How can they become a more effective force for the implementation of these goals?
12. How can human rights for all be implemented in a politically, economically, religiously, and culturally pluralistic society? World?
13. What recourse is open to those denied human rights?

To stimulate thinking on some of the more controversial or often ignored rights, we call your attention to the following articles of the UN Declaration: 2, sex equality; 5, degrading treatment; 8, remedy for violation; 12, privacy; 13 travel; progeny(15); 18, thought & community; access to mass media(19); public service(21); 22, cultural; 23, work & dignity; 24, rest & leisure; 25, security, mother & child care; 26, free education; the arts(27); 28, humane social order.

Questions and Issue Sheet - TV-10 IMPUS Program - Human Rights of Life = "

1. What are human rights?

What rights are there? Like 2nd - 8 human rights?

2. Why should human life have the right to develop its full personal & social potential?

3. How can it be determined what conditions are necessary for the development of full human potential.

4. Are there any conflicting rights or interests which should take priority over human rights?

5. Why are so many human rights denied in practice? Determine

6. Who is to decide what human rights are?

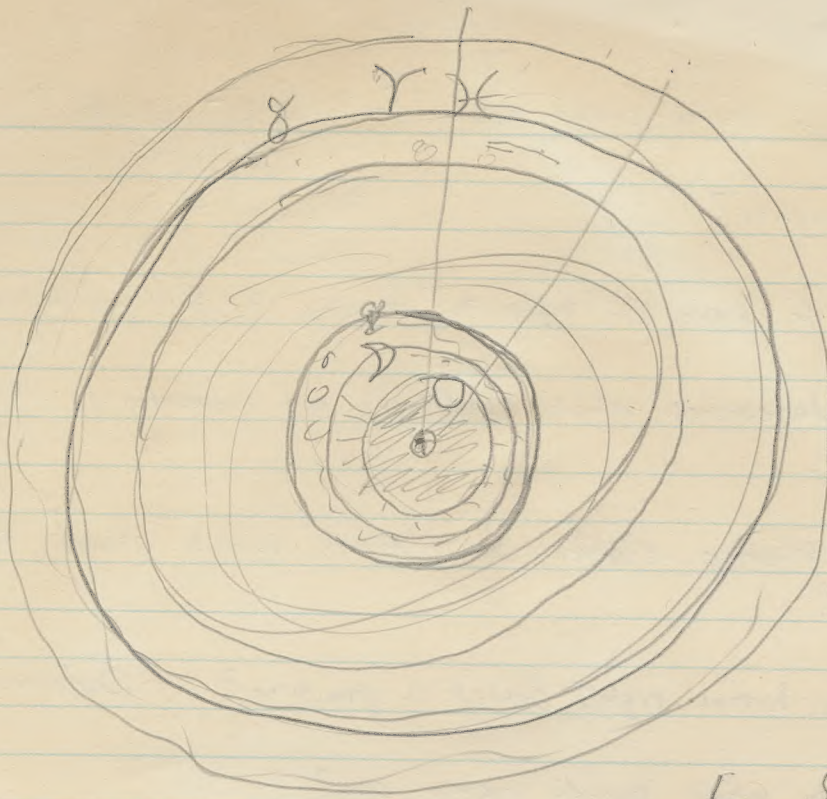

7. Who is to decide what human rights should be deferred or abrogated in the short term in favor of building long-term ^{economic} ~~economic and social~~ support for human life.

8. What are the commonly recognized human rights for development of full human potential in the areas of body, mind and spirit.

9. What rights on listed in the UN declaration on human rights.

10. To what groups can society look for an effective impact from the implementation of human rights.

11. What part do ~~our~~ rising expectations play in the progress implementation of cultural, ethical and spiritual human rights after political and economic human rights have been implemented?

Effect
 - Run 2 Run
 - Canyon
 L Softener like the decay
 R
 C Best of all possible worlds

Rain

Kratos

Curly

Smile

Lily

Turner